STUART K. WALLACE, SR.
"Wally Wants to See You"
This has been Stuart Wallace's slogan and trademark ever since he started his Wallace and Company automobile garage and service station in Freeport, eighteen years ago.

Stuart Wallace, better known as Wally, has been one of Freeport's most zealous press-agents. His "Wally wants to see you" automobile license-type plates have been attached to vehicles from many states of the Union. They caused many raised eyebrows and inquiring glances from the curious through-out Europe because Freeporters, who were in the service and home town, sent for the plates and attached them to their private and military vehicles.

This is very symbolic of Stuart Wallace and his personality. He likes people and is particularly proud of his adopted home-town of Freeport. However, his New England "neighborly-type" upbringing has been very evident in his demeanor ever since he left his birthplace, Webster, Massachusetts.

"I believe," said Stuart Wallace, "that even if Freeport should double its present population and be classed with the great cities of America, it will always keep the warmth of the small town. Being friendly is part of this warmth. I am proud of Freeport because to me Freeport has everything desirable in a community. It is a fine place to live and a fine place to work and to conduct a business."

Wally started his garage and gas station on West Merrick Road and South Long Beach Avenue in 1932 in partnership with Mrs. Jerry Brown. The business has become a bee-hive of activity. Jerry Brown has not been a partner to just sit back in the office, instead, she takes an active part and can be seen pumping gas, fixing flats, and servicing cars. Customers are pleasantly surprised with her efficient service and often remark that she is more capable than many men attendants.

Wally served in World War I as a First Sgt. and as an Air Raid Warden in World War II. He is a graduate of Bartlett High School of Webster, Mass. Besides other organizations, he is also a member of the Masonic Lodge, Freeport Elks, Board of Directors, Chamber of Commerce, William Clinton Story Post, American Legion, Nassau County Mounted Guard, Long Island Humane Society.

Stuart Wallace has been very active in Freeport. His friends are legion and his friendships sincere. "Wally Wants to See You" is more than a slogan it is a philosophy of life.

Doxsee Sees People Relying on Nation For Their Security

Quoting Lincoln in His Memorial Day Talk He Calls for Redication

Mayor Robert L. Doxsee in his address at the annual Memorial Day exercises in the Municipal Stadium called on his listeners in the words of Abraham Lincoln to rededicate themselves "anew to the great unfinished task remaining before us that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, that this government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

The exercises followed a spectacular parade which amazed visitors from other communities larger than Freeport at its size and the numerous organizations of veterans and military units in line. These included the members of William Clinton Story Post and Anderson Delaney Post, A.L., and Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V.F.W., and their auxiliaries, two veterans of the Spanish-American War, a group from the Marine Corps League, members of the 142d Heavy Tank Battalion, N.Y.N.G., and the two squadrons of the U.S. Naval Reserve. The band of the Tank Battalion led the guardsmen and the Ordnance Naval Reserve Band marched at the head of the parade. The Freeport High School Band led the Fire Department which turned out in full with its equipment. The third division comprised fraternal and civic groups, for which music was provided by the Elementary School Band, while the fourth division was made up of Boy and Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownies, Nautical Cadets and other youth groups.

Exercises at Stadium—Arriving at the stadium, the exercises in charge of Grand Marshal Samuel M. Gerber got under way with the advancing of the colors, a salute to the flag, the invocation by the Rev. C. Newman Hogle, president of the Inter-Faith Clergy Council, and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. Rose K. Savona, accompanied by the high school band followed by the Mayor's address.

Commander Kenneth E. Vought, gave the Legion memorial and merited the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A squad from the 152d Heavy Tank Battalion fired three volleys while two buglers from the Marine Corps sounded "Taps." The Rev. Mr. Hogle pronounced the benediction. During the exercises Chairman Gerber introduced the Rev. Mr. Hogle, members of the Village Board and other guests.

Mayor Doxsee in his address said in part:

To Write For The Leader

DAVID M. MOLTROP

David M. Molthrop, 482 Archer st., who has been associated with the National Association of Manufacturers since 1948, starting with the issue of Thursday, June 8, will write a series of articles for The LEADER on "How to Attract New Industries to Freeport." Mr. Molthrop who has been in charge of the N.A.M. program on employment-stabilization, has conducted more than 400 meetings in 47 states and more than 175 American communities, spurred by his talks, have adopted a program to provide greater stability of employment for employees in their communities. He has conducted numerous "How to Attract New Industries" meetings in Wyoming, Maryland, Florida, Mississippi, Colorado and other states.

DeLisser Seeks Gifts To Put Over Drive Of Salvation Army

Only Half of $6,500 Asked Raised in May; Sees Work Curtailed

With June 1 here, the Freeport Salvation Army fund raising drive, which was supposed to have ended on May 31, has reached only the half way mark in the campaign to raise $6,500 to carry on its work among the needy and the friendless in this village.

Facing this situation, Horace E. DeLisser, chairman of the campaign, today issued an appeal for the residents and businessmen of the community to rise to the situation and add their contributions to the total with a view to putting the drive over-the-top.

He pointed out that unless the amount asked is raised, work usually done by the Salvation Army; will have to be done by other agencies. Mr. DeLisser asked those who have not given to do so now and those who have contributed to give more, if their consciences tell them they should have done better.

This will be the first time in several years, Freeport has failed to reach its goal, if the drive is not a success.

The Bayview Pharmacy, 379 Atlantic ave., will remain open Sunday after the other drug stores in Freeport close at 2 P.M. The telephone is FR9port 8-0124.

Only Those Enrolled Eligible to Participate; Four Broadcasts Planned

Tomorrow and Saturday have been designated as registration days for the special election called by the Board of Education for Thursday, June 15, to determine whether a new school hall be erected on the plot bounded by West Merrick rd., South Bayview ave., Smith and Washington sts., recently acquired by the board. The matter will be submitted to the voters as a proposal to issue $1,300,000 in bonds to finance the construction of a building to relieve the congestion in the Archer st. school and house the classes now located in the Grove st. school so the junior high school may have the building for its exclusive use.

Only those who register will be qualified to vote at the special election. The names of 197 who enrolled for the annual meeting last month, will be carried over, but all others must register. The polls for the enrollment of voters will be open in the corridor of the high school both days from 7 A.M. to 8 P.M. The campaign of education conducted by members of the board, members of the Parent-Teacher Associations and other groups has aroused wide interest and a large registration is expected.

Conditions at Archer Street—A pamphlet issued by the Board of Education shows that the enrollment of 820 in the Archer st. school exceeds the capacity of the building by more than 200, that the enrollment in the kindergarten, grades 1, 2 and 3, has reached 400, that next year grades 1, 2 and 3 will occupy 15 of the 18 regular classrooms in the building, and that without considering new homes and apartments under construction the enrollment for the year 1952-53 based on a survey of pre-school children, will exceed 1,000. In the Grove st. school the junior high school is sadly in need of more space.

The proposed new building is designed to contain 18 classrooms and 47 states and more than 175 American communities, spurred by his talks, have adopted a program to provide greater stability of employment for employees in their communities. He has conducted numerous "How to Attract New Industries" meetings in Wyoming, Maryland, Florida, Mississippi, Colorado and other states.

Series of Broadcasts—To acquaint those who have not been reached at various meetings, (Continued on Page 4)

Yacht Clubs Open The Season With Memorial Day Programs

Taking advantage of the delightful change in the weather, the South Shore and Freeport Yacht Clubs carried out the complete programs they had arranged for the opening of the outdoor season on Memorial Day.

A record crowd turned out for brunch, which has replaced the commodore's breakfast at the South Shore exercises. The day's program got under way with assembly on the gundeck followed by the flag raising, with Commodore Carl W. Schutte in charge. Sue Campbell sang "The Star Spangled Banner" accompanied by Lynn Thurston, organist.

Richard G. McChesney officiated as master of ceremonies following brunch. Mayor Robert L. Doxsee spoke and introduced the members of the Village Board present—Leonard D. B. Smith, Cord Viabrock and Seward J. Baker with members of the Ladies' Auxiliary aboard the clubboat. The day's program was ended with a series of games on the club grounds.

Commodore Michael Chalko presided at the breakfast of the Freeport Yacht Club held in Otis's, Woodcliff ave., attended by more than 100 persons. The elaborate flag raising, which followed, was spoken and introduced the members of the Village Board present—Leonard D. B. Smith, Cord Viabrock and Seward J. Baker with members of the Ladies' Auxiliary aboard the clubboat. The day's program was ended with a series of games on the club grounds.

The Editor's Notebook

THOUGHTS ON A RAINY MONDAY AFTERNOON. . . I wonder what ever happened to the STRAW HAT DAY of yester year. . . Back some fifteen or twenty years ago, STRAW HAT DAY was a national institution. . . That was the day (May 15) when the gay young blades of all ages discarded their felt hats and put on that shiny new straw hat, and it was quite an occasion. . . putting on that new straw hat did something to you. . . I suppose in discarding the old, and putting on the new you had the feeling of coming into a new season. . . a new season full of hope, and opportunities, and sunshine. . . the opportunities are still with us, but we could use a little of that hope, and sunshine.

Sitting back and looking out my window on this rainy afternoon I can see a sign in a shop window across the street. It is a U. S. Government sign urging all of us to be thrifty and invest in government savings bonds. . . a very, very, wonderful idea. . . and while the government is urging all of us to thrift, the government itself is spending billions of dollars beyond its receipts. . . not such a very, very, good idea.

MEMORIAL DAY. . . turned out nice and sunny and warm. . . a very welcome change after all the rainy weather. The parade was wonderful and while every unit in it was fine by far the "smartest" of all was our volunteer firemen. . . their blue uniforms, trim appearance, and youthful step, marked them in my mind as the "top" unit of a very wonderful parade.

We hit a new high in THE LEADER circulation this week. . . Since May 1 almost 1,500 additional copies of THE LEADER are now distributed throughout our community. . . Thank you very, very much.

The world is moving so fast these days that the man who says it can't be done is usually interrupted by someone doing it.

STORY POST TO ELECT OFFICERS TOMORROW NIGHT

The annual meeting of William Clinton Story Post, A.L., is to be held tomorrow night in the Dugout. Seventeen members of the post and its auxiliary participated in the decoration of the graves and memorial service in the Pineslawn National Cemetery Sunday afternoon. They were led by Commander Kenneth E. Vought and President Mrs. Barbara Cruger.

The May party dance given in the Dugout Saturday night was attended by more than a 100 veterans and their friends.

BISHOP MOLLOY COUNCIL MEMBERS AT LAKE PLACID

Grand Knight Richard G. Hungerford and past Grand Knights Henry J. Dengel and James P. McHugh represented Bishop Molloy Council at the Knights of Columbus 55th state convention held at Lake Placid on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. Mr. McHugh was reappointed state chairman of Ceremonials and Rituals. Matthew Kennedy of Brookville was named to succeed himself as State deputy for this area.

EXCHANGE CLUB GROUP ATTENDS CONGODOY DINNER

Secretary Russell E. Hotelling, Village Engineer Herbert M. Wood, John E. Diemer and Albert Smith represented the Freeport Exchange Club at a dinner given for Dr. John B. Congdon, founder of the Albany club, in Albany last Thursday night. Dr. Congdon is more than 80 years old.

★ It's good business

to be open for business every hour of the day . . . every day . . . with telephone answering service of The TELEPHONE ANSWERING EXCHANGE

Here's how you do it!

- Employ a trained telephone secretary for a few cents a day and let her take care of your phone calls. Yes . . . she'll be fully capable of taking your messages and orders; passing on information; virtually handling your business for you whenever you are out of the office, during lunch hours, after and before working hours . . . 24 hours a day.

Here's why!

- You must make calls to make sales. You must leave your office sometime. Let your telephone secretary take over when you do.
- If your customers call before you arrive in the office in the morning or after you leave at night, your telephone secretary will be there doing business.
- If you have a large staff, you will still find telephone answering service an important addition to your office. It's the convenient way to handle calls during the lunch hour, at night and on Saturdays and Sundays.

Telephone Answering Exchange has know-how!

TEN YEARS SERVING nearly every type of business in Nassau County has provided the TELEPHONE ANSWERING EXCHANGE with the knowledge necessary to serve you. Your telephone calls will be handled according to your instructions by a telephone secretary who will familiarize herself with your specific problems. You will be pleased with her efficiency. ## IT CANNOT FAIL! IT MUST NOT FAIL!

...and with your help IT WILL NOT FAIL

A Highly Personal Message and An Important Civic Appeal

To: Mayor Dorse and our Board of Trustees, The heads of our four Service Clubs and All Civic, Veteran and Fraternal Organizations, Mr. Joseph Goldblatt, Mr. Irving Grebinar and all members of our Chamber of Commerce and Merchant Associations, All members of our Interfaith Clergy Council, The Publisher of the Leader and the owner of WGBB AND TO ALL RESIDENTS, BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN AND WOMEN OF FREEPORT.

If I were under 21 years of age, and if I had not worked on fund raising drives of one nature or another for well over twenty years, I could be excused if I kidded myself or kidded my co-workers and fellow townspeople and told you that everything was going fine with our 1950 Salvation Army Drive.

However, such is not the case. Hence this personal message to you and to everyone else whom I sincerely believe will be interested in our problem . . . for our problem is The Salvation Army's problem . . . and the Salvation Army's problem is your problem, for this God-given organization solves problems for our community that would otherwise fall on our village administration, on our churches, on our veterans organizations . . . yes, directly on the doorstep of many of our homes where the poor and the needy might well have to resort if we did not have a Salvation Army Service Establishment in our midst.

And so . . . my Good Friends, here is our problem.

Never in my experience in Freeport can I remember a year in which we have had such a run of "Drives" for one or another, all worthy, all needy.

Previous to the war there was only one other organization besides the Salvation Army which made a village-wide solicitation of funds during the spring months, and that was our great Red Cross.

This year it seems that hardly a week has gone by that some village-wide drive was not under way. As a result our community is suffering from a serious case of "Driven-to-Deathtitis." Workers and givers alike show a sign of apathy to our Salvation Army drive this year that we have never experienced before, to my knowledge.

With What Result?

Here we are at the end of May when our drive should be over, when workers should be free to enjoy the Spring weather that seems to have arrived, when you should be free of any more requests for this season, and yet here we are with less than 50 percent of our $6,500 quota on hand.

What would you do if you were in my position . . . if you had accepted the responsibility of the General Chairmanship of the Annual Fund-raising drive for as important and as blessed an organization as the Salvation Army?

I think you would do exactly as I am doing. You would remember that Great promise from that little old black book which reads . . .

"ACCORDING TO YOUR FAITH BE IT DONE UNTO YOU"

Then I think you would make this exact same appeal that I am making. You would tell your fellow business people and residents the problem. You would make it easy for those who have not yet given to do so. (See Coupon Below) then you would leave the problem in the hands of the Solver of all problems, and you would rest secure in the knowledge that the great heart and mind of the people of the community you had come to love and to seek to serve, above all others, would open up and aid you to "finish the job" for the organization you had come to love, above all others.

God Bless you for your response to this appeal in whatever manner you feel guided to answer it.

Very sincerely,
Your General Chairman of the 1950
Salvation Army Drive

Cornelius B. Young, Jr., and his bride, the former Miss Marguerite E. Grosso, who were married in the First Baptist Church Saturday afternoon. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Louis H. Losch, officiated.

Miss Marguerite Grosso Bride Of Cornelius B. Young In Church

Miss Marguerite Grosso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Grosso, 84 Madison ave., and Cornelius B. Young, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius B. Young, Sr., of Sardin, Miss., were married Saturday afternoon in the First Baptist Church by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Louis H. Losch. Mr. Grosso gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. C. Robert Grosso, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Adrian Chakerian, of Forest Hills, and Miss Dorothy Buckley, of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., were bridesmaids. The bride, her matron of honor and Miss Chakerian were classmates at Queens College.

C. R. Grosso was his brother's best man while John Grosso, another brother of the bride, and Frank Hadley, of Queens, ushered. There were vocal solos by Mrs. Jack Boyle and the bridegroom's father, who were accompanied on the organ by Sanford V. Smith. A reception for 80 was given in the Elks clubhouse, after which Mr. and Mrs. Young left by motor for a tour of New England and Canada. They plan to live for the present at the Madison ave. address.

Mrs. Young is a graduate of Jamaica High School, Jamaica, and Queens College, and has been employed as a stenographer. Her husband, who received his degree from Georgia Technical Institute, is an electrical engineer in the research department of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

D.A.R. Holds Memorial Service at the Library

Members of the Ruth Floyd Woodhull Chapter, D.A.R., attended the annual Freeport High School Memorial Service on Monday afternoon. Following this, the members conducted memorial rites at the Freeport Memorial Library honoring the nation's war dead and deceased members of the chapter. A prayer was read by Mrs. Robert C. Dennett, chaplain. "Taps" were sounded by John Herbert of the Freeport High School Band. Mrs. Frederick W. Whitehouse, regent, read a poem.

The chapter will conclude its season's activities with a luncheon at Three Village Inn, Stony Brook, Saturday, in honor of Miss Donna M. Crittenden, retiring state chairman junior membership. An historical tour, in charge of Mrs. S. Dimon Smith, historian, will follow the luncheon and business meeting.

Rotary Club Members and Speaker Tell 'What's Wrong With Schools'

"What's wrong with the schools?" Mrs. Anne Glynn Basker, registrar and director of public relations of the Mills School for Teachers, Manhattan, asked at the weekly supper of the Rotary Club Thursday night in the Elks clubhouse.

First she gave members of the club an opportunity to express their opinions on the subject.

George Hedrick suggested the school day be shortened, Erle V. Painter asserted something should be done to dignify the profession saying the teachers are not respected as they were in the past, Edward J. Burroughs contended religious teaching should be restored in the schools, and Kenneth E. Vought, commander of William Clinton Story Post, A.L., called for a complete change in the methods of teaching by a substitution of lectures and visual aids as used in the Army.

Next Mayor Robert L. Doxsee called for some means of inculcating into the child's mind the responsibility to the nation and not the nation to the individual. F. Gordon Edwards advocated a better teaching of citizenship and the "Three Rs."

After listening to these suggestions, Mrs. Basker called for a modification of the curriculum to provide individual instruction for group teaching. She said the best work was being done in the kindergarten and primary grade-levels because the teachers were interested in the children and wanted them to be happy. She regretted the tendency to operate under the assembly line method whereby students are rushed from the elementary school into high school and then into college, "without anyone stopping to pick up the nuts as they drop." She called for different types of school buildings in which instruction could be adapted to the needs of the individual.

She asserted that if someone would attempt to find out "why Johnny fails," instead of sending home complaining notes to his parents, and vitalize education he would not want to play truant.

In conclusion Mrs. Basker said the United States could spend 30 times what it is spending on education at this time according to statisticians. If this was done, with the knowledge gained less would have to be spent on hospitals for the mentally ill and hospital insurance, she added.

Harry H. Elliott introduced the speaker, and President Ray E. Clements presided.

BUILD WITH GOOD TASTE

THE COLBY has plans which call for a particularly low roof line. The plans also specify that the exterior of The Colby be brick veneered. The combination of these two special features provides this house with extra sturdiness.

The floor plan of The Colby includes three bedrooms. Every one of the three bedrooms is equipped with a generous amount of closet space. There is a comfortable living room and a kitchen provided with ample dining area.

There is convenient closet space in The Colby. The front vestibule of The Colby is furnished with a large, handy coat closet. There is a linen closet as well as a general storage closet located in the bedroom hall. The kitchen is provided with a large general storage closet and there is also a pot and pan cabinet situated next to the refrigerator. The combination kitchen and dining room has cross ventilation.

The main body of The Colby is 28 feet by 36 feet. The Colby's plan calls for a full basement. The plan covers an area of 1,170 square feet. There is a volume of 23,391 cubic feet.

For further information about THE COLBY, write THE LEADER, 20 South Main st., Freeport, N.Y. This is a service for our readers.

Getting Down To Building

The Urge to Build

Of course you do not have to build. There are many well-designed and carefully constructed houses on the market, some of which may in a greater or less degree fulfill your particular requirements. But barring miracles, the only way you will get a house which is entirely suitable to all your needs and tastes is to build one. A ready-built house can be thoroughly inspected and quickly purchased. In short, it will save you some time and trouble but you will miss the creative pleasure of seeing a house emerge which is perfectly adapted to your requirements, and afterwards, the satisfaction that comes from living in a house which is your own in a very special sense—and there you have the incentive to build.

Selecting an Architect

Your urge to build, unless guided by a capable architect, may well end in disaster. A builder, armed with your own plan sketches or clippings from a magazine, can put up a house, but it is not likely that you will be happy with the result. Few builders, in fact, are equipped by training to handle the infinity of details that go into designing a successful house, nor is it likely that you will find one who has any grasp of even the elementary principles of good design. So before you build, before you plan, before, if possible, you purchase a site, select your architect. Architects, like other professional and business men, are good, bad, and indifferent. If you are in doubt about which to choose, get a list of all the architects in your locality, find out what they have done, how well pleased their clients are, and proceed to a selection in this manner. When the choice has narrowed down to a few, talk to them about your problem and be guided by your personal reactions. The relation between architect and client is a very personal one. Make sure they are a good personality. Some people will prefer to select a man who has had a considerable amount of experience; others lean towards a younger man who may be more in sympathy with new ideas. In any event, in whatever way you select an architect, once you have made the decision, give him your full confidence and submit all of your ideas for his consideration. In no other manner can you take fullest advantage of his valuable services.

Nitzschke Cited In 'Last Cruise', Story Of Submarine Cochino Loss

Richard Ernest Nitzschke, of Freeport, as one of the seventy-eight man crew of the U.S.S. Submarine Cochino, which sank in the Greenland Sea on Aug. 25 last, is cited for heroism and bravery by Commander William J. Lederer in his new book, "The Last Cruise."

One of the United States Navy's latest experimental submarines, the U.S.S. Cochino was caught in a polar gale 400 miles north of the Arctic Circle while conducting cold-weather operations with her sister-ship the U.S.S. Tusk. The violent shocks and jolts experienced by the Cochino caused a battery accident and resulted in the generation of hydrogen, one of the most dangerous of all gases when it is confined. For fourteen hours Rafael Benke, of Groton, Connecticut, Commander of the Cochino, and his men fought against fire and explosion to save their ship. Seven men were lost, and when rescue operations of the U.S.S. Tusk were over it was considered a miracle that any lives at all were saved.

Commander Lederer interviewed the survivors shortly after they returned to the United States Submarine Base in New London, Conn., and in "The Last Cruise," he tells the inspiring story of their bravery and heroism when they were battered and frozen by the seas that swept over the Cochino, burned by exploding hydrogen, and gassed by fumes from the burning power compartments during their struggle against the violent storm.

"The Last Cruise," published by William Gloane Associates, is a full-length version of Commander Lederer's article, "Miracle Under the Arctic Sea," which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, and the Reader's Digest. He is also the author of "All the Ship's at Sea," which William Gloane Associates published earlier this year.

Post Office Windows Open An Hour Later

Outrillment of service in compliance with orders issued by Postmaster General Jesse Donaldson was started by Postmaster Edward A. Rice in the Freeport Post Office last week.

Opening of the stamp, parcel post and registry windows was set back an hour from 7 to 8 A.M.

The real effects of the Post Office Department's economy movement will be felt beginning on Monday, June 5, when the number of deliveries in residential areas will be reduced from two to one, and the number of routes in the village will be cut back from 26 to 20 despite the rapid growth of the community.

However, no letter carrier will be required to carry more than 35 pounds of mail at one time due to the system of pick-ups from boxes along the routes supplied by men in trucks, but all the men will have greater distances to walk under the single delivery system. In some areas people will not receive their mail until after the noon hour.

The change in the time of making collections also will go into effect on June 5.

RUTH A. LOFINK GIVEN MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER
Mrs. Henry Schultz, 31 Rose st., recently gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Ruth A. Lofink, 288 Park ave., who is to become the bride of Arthur Freese, Jr., of Lynbrook, on Saturday, June 10. There were 30 guests present.

Mrs. L. L. Wilson Named Baptist Circle President

Mrs. L. L. Wilson was elected president of the Ladies Circle of the First Baptist Church at the May meeting in Fellowship Hall. The rest of the officers named are: Mrs. N. H. Megahan, vice-president; Mrs. J. W. Fischer, secretary; Mrs. Eliza Johnson, treasurer, and Mrs. Ray C. Brumfield, missionary and program chairman.

The officers will be installed at a joint meeting of the Day and Evening Circles to be held in Huntington on Tuesday, June 27.

Mrs. Robert Huxford and Mrs. Louis H. Losch spoke on the American Indians. A smorgasbord luncheon was served before the meeting.

Insurance Rates On Private Cars Cut

3 P. C. Reduction In Nassau; Commercial
Rates Upped 31 P. C.

State Superintendent of Insurance Robert E. Dineen recently announced a downward revision of 3 per cent in the rates for automobile bodily injury and property damage liability insurance in Nassau County. The rate was fixed at $44 for $5,000/$10,000 bodily injury and $5,000 property damage, a reduction of 1.50. This rate is for Class 1, formerly Classes A-1 and A-2.

However, the commercial car rates for Class 6-CA was upped by 31 percent, from $42 to $55, or $16.

Mr. Dineen said "Rate adjustments in each of the forty-six various rating territories of the state reflect the driving record of the communities concerned and the general level of indemnity payments as affected by local jury verdicts. Good experience means lower insurance rates; poor experience means higher rates. To state it another way, the community, not the insurance company, ultimately makes its own rate."

The revised insurance rates were filed by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the Mutual Insurance Rating Bureau to become effective last Monday. Most companies licensed to do the business in New York State will charge the new rates.

The rates were accepted by the New York State Insurance Department on the basis of the frequency and severity of losses in the individual rating territories involved and reflect the trend of accident figures through 1949. The revision does not apply to automobile fire, theft, collision or comprehensive insurance. Medical payments coverage rates for private passenger car owners have been decreased $1.00 throughout the state except in the boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx and Brooklyn. The favorable experience of those insured who have combined this coverage with their bodily injury liability coverage caused this reduction.

Fitzgerald Opens Second Sewing Center in Freeport

Geo. J. Lesperance Buried in Pinelawn

George J. Lesperance, 57 North Main st., who for eight years drove the school bus in which pupils of the Archer st., Seman ave. and Holy Redeemer schools were transported to and from their studies, was buried in the Pinelawn National Cemetery, near Farmingdale, May 20. Interment followed services conducted in the Thomas M. Quinn & Sons' parlors, 47 North Main st., by the Rev. Frank Vulture of the Oceanide church. Mr. Lesperance died in the Meadow Brook Hospital. He was born in Ogdensburg, N.Y., 54 years ago, and had lived in Freeport since 1927. He had driven buses for the Sea Line, the Hempstead Bus Co., and Daniel and Peter Dileo by whom he was employed at the time of his death. He served in World War I with the 112th Infantry of the 78th Division in some of the bloodiest battles in Europe, and was a member of Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V.F.W. He is survived by his wife, Emma Snyder, and seven brothers and six sisters up-State.

IN TIMES LIKE THESE, INVEST IN BOYS AND GIRLS

Registration for voting on the Bayview Elementary School opens Friday and continues through Saturday. This proposition meets a prime need in this community, and the success of it is the responsibility of every citizen who is a true friend to youth. "In times like these, invest in boys and girls." Each day four thousand of them pass through the portals of the Freeport Schools. Each of them is more precious than material goods; not one of them is to be carelessly wasted; all are to be given equal opportunity to live and learn. In years to come, our community will stand in even greater need of the leadership, the resourcefulness and the creative abilities of capable citizens. We must prize and cultivate the talents of youth accordingly. The returns on such an investment are almost immeasurably great in terms of good citizenship, civic intelligence and democratic behavior.

Growing up is the greatest adventure life holds. The responsibility to help in the shaping of young lives is perhaps the most serious one assumed by any community as a whole. If we fail to provide these new school facilities in Freeport, there is nothing left but part-time education. This is the only way the physical facilities can accommodate the rapidly expanding enrollment. We can interrupt the improving of a road and ten years later, go on with it almost where we left off; but if we interrupt or curtail the education of children of school age and ten years later begin to feel responsible for them, we can by no means begin where we left off. We find them irreparably grown up and some grown up wrong—liabilities to their community rather than assets.

America's unique ideal of universal education has not been easily achieved or upheld. There has been sacrifice all along the way. Every generation has had to work at this problem of giving each boy and girl a fair start in life. One cannot look at youth without projecting himself into the world to be. Only through intelligence touched by idealism can democracy be perpetuated, and only when our citizens seek to understand the value of education in a democracy and honestly participate in the solution of its problems.

The Board of Education has presented a proposition to build an elementary school on the Bayview Avenue site, and we on the staff of THE LEADER feel that the best interests of our community will be served by giving full support to the building of this new school. We urge the citizens of Freeport to Register in the High School Auditorium Lobby on June 2nd and 3rd, and vote "yes" on this proposition June 15th. In times like these, invest in boys and girls. GOOD SCHOOLS MAKE A GOOD COMMUNITY.

United in vision, courage and action, our community can and will provide the educational facilities. We face a great crisis of opportunity in common with every community in the country today. With open-mindedness, a sense of responsibility, and a determination to utilize the opportunity to meet our obligations to youth, we will carry education forward.

Ray Clements

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:
In view of the highest living cost in our history the present Federal income tax exemption of $800 per person is ridiculous. In all fairness Congress should amend the law to provide an exemption of at least $3,500 for married couples, and $1,500 for single people. Ordinary people have to work four months a year just to pay their taxes.
Raymond B. Wells.

Ed. Note:
But can we have our cake and eat it too? We want to enjoy most of the things our tax money buys, but we kick when we get the bill. I believe the answer to this question is for us to take steps to reduce unnecessary expenses, of which, I am told, there are plenty.

Dear Mr. Editor:
I don't think our village ever looked more beautiful than it does this spring. Last Sunday I could not help but admire the countless citizens who were working in their gardens, trimming their hedges, cutting their lawns, fixing their houses all of which helps to beautify our village, and make it the attractive place it is.
Mrs. A. R. Simpson.

Ed. Note:
And the following day, all those citizens were doing business with our druggists. There was never such a call for liniment as the morning after the day before. But our village does look beautiful.

Dear Sirs:
The editorial "You Can't Argue With The Stars" was very, very good, and right to the point. We definitely need a new school in the South end of Freeport, and without a doubt, we will need more classroom space before all our children are properly taken care of. It occurs to me it would be of much more benefit to our nation as a whole if we spent more money in providing decent schooling for our youngsters than for providing arms for Europe. There is nothing finer we can do for ourselves, and for our children than to give them the very best schooling possible in the very best surroundings.
Sincerely,

Dear L.E.C.:
Thank you for your letter. We agree with you. We heard a speaker the other night declare "America can afford to spend 30 times more than what it is now spending for proper education." I don't know about this, but I do feel the very best investment we can make is in the youth of our community.
The Editor.

Dear Sir:
Your tribute to those who gave their lives for their country was very fine. Those of us who have lost our loved ones appreciate very much the fine sentiment expressed.
MRS. W. B.

Dear Sirs:
Have you noticed the many beautiful Azalea plants in the gardens of our beautiful homes? I feel we in Freeport have many beautiful gardens and some day I would like to see Freeport take on such a project as I understand Lynbrook has where the village or the merchants would sell at cost to all our residents Azalea plants. These would help beautify our village, and make it an even more attractive place.
MRS. W. R. S.

Dear Sirs:
I notice an increasing number of dogs running around loose, not only in our residential areas, but in the business section as well. I heard only recently of a small child bitten by a dog in the business area. This is dreadful, and something should be done about getting these dogs off the street. People should not be allowed to walk their dogs without them being on a leash.
MR. A. C.

FRANKEL ENDS COURSE IN TEXTILE CONVERTING
Fred G. Frankel, 165 Pine st., will be graduated Tuesday from the program in Textile Converting offered by the City College Modern Business Center, Manhattan.

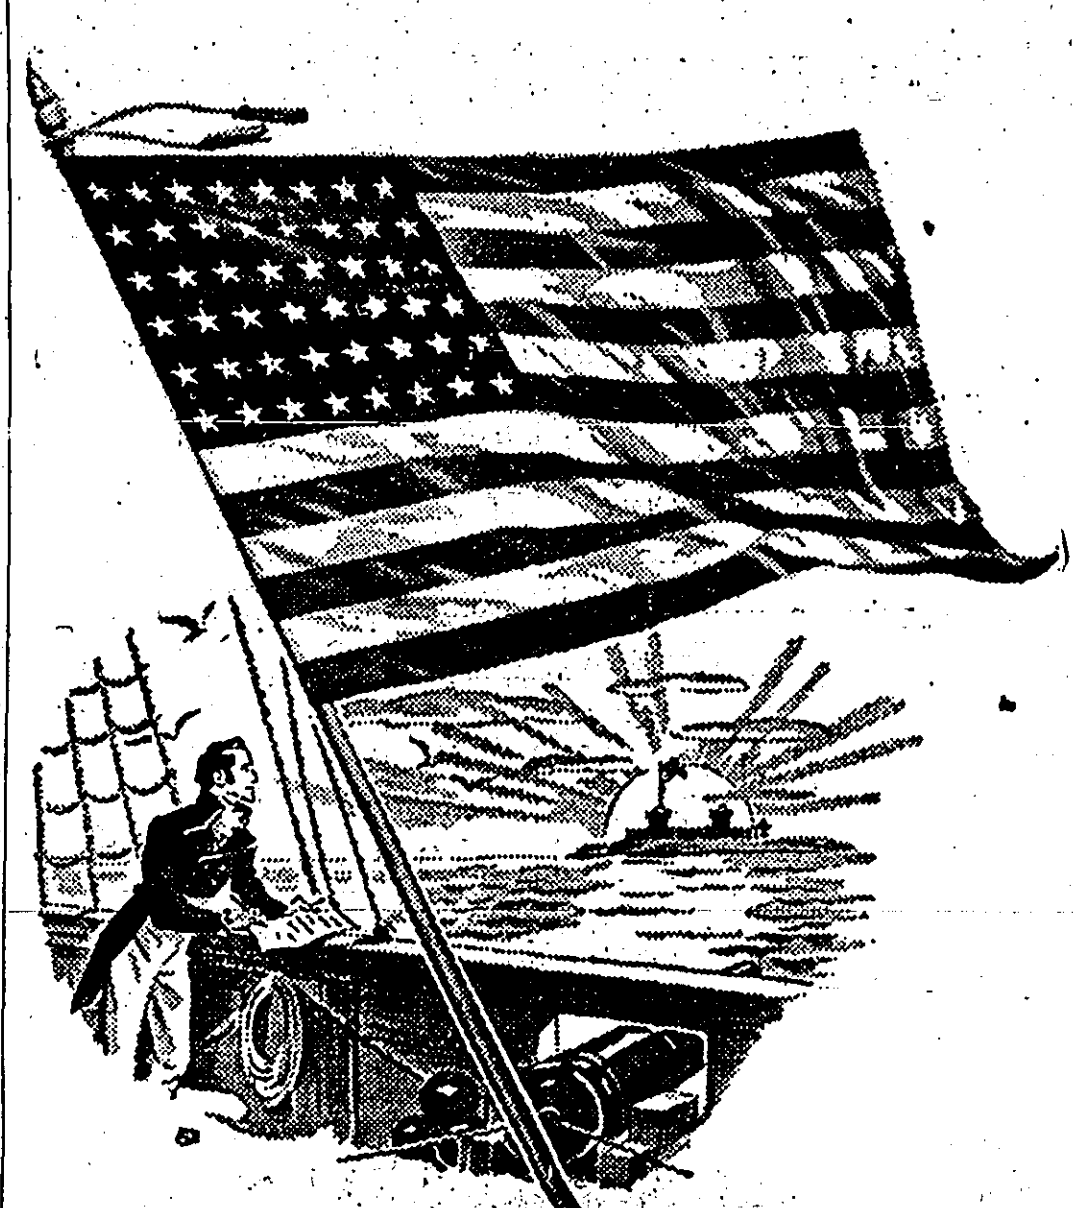

The course in Textile Converting gives thorough coverage to the organization of the textile industry, the functions of the converter, the converter's place in distribution and books and other publications of value to the converter. In an informal workshop, the trainees learn about the finishing of fabrics, special functional finishes, dyeing, printing, converting procedures and problems, and the examination of finished goods.

VASIL'S VARIETIES

By Eddie Vasil

Without or with offense to friends or foes,
I sketch your world exactly as it goes.—Byron

(Ed. Note: The space usually taken by this column has gratefully been dedicated to the sacred observance of Flag Day.)

BY THE DAWN'S EARLY LIGHT

Inspired by the valiance of United States fighting men, succeeding in battle against mighty odds, Francis Scott Key wrote the anthem which we all love so well—THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

On Flag Day, June 14th, let us seriously pause and take heed of the symbolic meaning of our great flag. Let us loyally cooperate in the national observance of this holiday. Together we can always keep America great with Freedom for all.

NASSAU COUNTY will celebrate Flag Day, 1950, with a great program of activity. Rene Carreau, PER of the Freeport Lodge of Elks, No. 1253 has been named Flag Day Committee Chairman for Nassau County. Every veteran's organization, all Nassau County Elks' Lodges, and most fraternal, civic, and youth societies, along with school children, will participate in the program of events which will include a gigantic parade. Remember Flag Day, June 14th, 1950. The public service and civic cooperation of your newspapers and radio stations will keep you informed about further details.

Appleton's Corner

By NORMAN APPLETON

This normal Long Island weather we've been having (rainy every day) is perfect breeding weather for mosquitos, and you can expect swarms of them inside your house unless you have your screens and screen doors up and waiting for them. We have BROWN ZEPHYRUS PLASTIC LUMBER and GLASS LUMBER in stock; you had better repair your screens now, if you haven't already done so. There are rumors about that UNCLE S. is starting to withdraw bronze from the open market, and aluminum as well, so check your WEATHER cooking utensils next time you're in the kitchen.

So we can save you time in looking, we have in stock CAR-PLATE, the new miracle car wax plugged in Readers Digest this month, which gives the lasting shine without the unpleasant labor of simonizing your chariot. A one dollar can will do one car twice or two cars once. Our initial shipment is fast running out, but if you keep buying it so will we. We have a good stock of MARINE HARDWARE for pleasure boats and you will find our prices are up to 10 percent less than the boys from the big city.

We had a customer in today for some BPS HOUSE PAINT for a NEW HOUSE that he moved into only last NOVEMBER, just SIX MONTHS AGO; he said that it seems that the builder painted it with a mixture of CHALK and WATER. (Builders please note: you may be fooling yourselves, but the public cannot be permanently deceived—the day will soon come when those CORNERS you cut will cost you the whole house.)

Readers please remember — APPLETON'S is open until 9 P.M. on Fridays and Saturdays only.

Curtain Callers All Set To Give 'Peg O' My Heart'

The Curtain Callers, Freeport's community theatre group, will conclude the 1949-50 season tomorrow and Saturday night with a production of J. Hartley Manner's "Peg O' My Heart" on the stage of the Seaman Avenue School. Curtain time is 8:30.

The play is being directed by Henry N. Burnett, of the Freeport High School faculty. Started as Peg is Miss Betty Muller. Others in the cast are William Baskerville, Charlotte Mulvey, Donald Hayes, Loretta Brennan, Bruce Quayle, George Curley, Donald Shalders and Helene Kadane. The cast also includes two canine actors, one a puppy belonging to Mrs. John Schultz of Archer st., and the other an Irish terrier owned by Mrs. Joseph Weller of Baldwin.

The old-time comedy will be done in costumes of the 1910 period. The Freeport Community Orchestra, directed by J. Maynard Wetlaufer, will play at both performances. Both the players and the orchestra are organized under the Adult Education Program of Freeport Board of Education.

Other shows in the current Curtain Callers season were: "A Night of Theatre," "Papa Is All" and "The Glass Menagerie." Within the year the group has also staged "Blithe Spirit."

The production crew for "Peg" includes David Kadane, scenery; Frances Quayle, costumes; Jane Young Siegel, properties; Theodore Turnau, business, and John Moreton, lighting. Tickets are available at the Grove Stationery Store, Grove st.

F.H.S. Students Honor Memory of War Dead

Students of the Freeport High School paid tribute to the American War Dead in two assemblies Monday in the school auditorium.

The first was at 2 P.M. for the Junior High. As the students filed in, the drums rolled at a steady pulse. There were a Bible reading and prayer by Jean Schrott, the "Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was sung by Mary Willet, with Gloria Chalko at the piano. Henry Caudsmith delivered a declamation entitled, "The Bivouac of the Dead." John Cleary, senior class president presented the traditional wreath of red, white and blue flowers to Mary Cleary, in behalf of the class. "Taps" concluded the program.

The senior high exercises followed the same pattern, ending with the recessional to the front lawn, led by Miss Cleary, bearing the floral wreath followed by the thirteen flag bearers, the others who have taken part in the presentation, and the entire Senior Class. The group formed a large semi-circle around the memorial tree, and President Cleary placed the wreath on the monument. "Taps" again ended the ceremony.

The flag bearers were: Don Swisher, Edmund O'Malley, Gil Goller, James Buchan, Richard Mayer, Edward Fitzgerald, Joseph Miller, Robert Miller, John Joyce, Edward Roemer, James Malakoff and Robert Mazelsky.

School Business Group Elects Hawkins President

Walter C. Hawkins, superintendent of buildings for the Freeport Department of Education, was elected president of the New York State School Business Officials at the annual convention held in Syracuse.

Mr. Hawkins was named a director when the association was formed three years ago. Last year, he was chosen vice-president. Three hundred persons attended the convention.

Business Women Hear Talk on Guatemala

Miss Helen McDonough, chief librarian of Baldwin Public Library, was guest speaker at the May meeting of the Business Women of Freeport held at the Grandwyne.

Wearing a Spanish costume for atmosphere, Miss McDonough gave an interesting account of two trips to Guatemala which is the size of Ohio and has the greatest Indian population of any Central or South American country. Having been destroyed by an earthquake in 1917, the Guatemala of today is a most modern city and both hotel and home life are centered around the beautiful patios she said. During her more recent trip, Miss McDonough stayed with a family whose son was graduated last year from Baldwin High. While tourists are permitted in the quiet white washed churches which burn incense on the steps, they are not permitted to enter except by the back door, Miss McDonough commented. From Guatemala Miss McDonough flew to Mexico, where her great, great grandmother was born. There she found tourist life more exciting after very primitive Guatemala. She was fascinated by the swimming pools covered with floating gardenias and the beautiful silver shops in Tosca.

Mrs. Agnes Licence, president, announced that the final meeting of the spring season would be a picnic supper at the summer home of Mrs. Sallie Buckley, South Grove st., Thursday, June 22.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Names Convention Delegates

Mrs. Georgia Dater, president, and Mrs. Lucy Johannemann, vice-president, were appointed delegates to the state V.F.W. Auxiliaries convention to be held in Rochester from July 1 to 4, at the semi-monthly meeting of the auxiliary of Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V.F.W., in Exempt Firemen's Hall.

It was the first meeting since the installation and Mrs. Dater instructed the officers in the duties of their various positions.

Mrs. Boardman Named To High Girl Scout Post

The appointment of Mrs. Walter Boardman, Oceanside, to serve as vice-chairman of the National Public Schools Advisory Committee of the Girl Scout organization was announced recently by Mrs. C. Vaughan Ferguson, National President, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A.—Dr. Harold C. Hunt, General Superintendent of Schools in Chicago, Ill., was appointed Chairman of the Committee at the same time.

Mrs. Boardman is in close touch with the latest developments in public school administration through her husband, the Superintendent of Schools in Oceanside. She has been in Girl Scouting since 1930, when she became leader of an Oceanside troop with which she continued for 13 years. In 1935 she became a member of the South Nassau Girl Scout Council, which she served as Commissioner from 1938 through 1940 and in which she is still a board member. Since 1947 she has been a member of the Girl Scout Regional Committee for New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, the Panama Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands. She has also helped to build the Girl Scout movement by serving as a volunteer trainer for new troop leaders and local council and committee members. In addition to her Girl Scout work, Mrs. Boardman is active in the Red Cross, for which she was Branch Chairman for five years, and is a Trustee of the Oceanside Free Library.

Chiropractors Re-Elect James W. Long President

James W. Long, 155 Pine st., was re-elected president of the Long Island District of the New York State Chiropractic Society at the annual meeting held in the Garden City Hotel Sunday night. George Howard of Lynbrook and Anna Ajosa, of Malverne, were named vice-presidents; and N. E.

Starcke, of Freeport, state director. Dr. C. W. Welant, of Peekskill spoke on the "Mental Aspects of the Patient." Mr. Long was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Manhasset Kiwanis Club Thursday night. His subject "Postural Relationships in Residual Fatigue in Polio" was well received.

EDWARD C. WOICK TO GET CATHOLIC U. DEGREE

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 1—Edward Charles Woick, 51 Frederick ave., Freeport, N. Y., who will be graduated from the Catholic University of America on Wednesday, has been named a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholarly fraternity. Mr. P. J. McCormick, rector of the University, announced this week. He is one of thirty-one outstanding students of the College of Arts and Sciences to receive the honor.

NO HOLDS BARRED!

Today youngsters know most standard wrestling holds and a few more besides. It's all in fun but where anything goes, bruises, bumps and cuts are often the inevitable result.

That's the time to remember that "no holds are barred" as far as germs are concerned. When emergencies occur you will appreciate having a fully automatic GAS Water Heater with its plentiful supply of hot water always on tap.

Right now is the time to install a new automatic GAS Water Heater and "get on the safe side." Stop taking chances by depending on "halfway" methods for heating water! GAS assures you all the hot water you need for every purpose.

Phone or stop in at our nearest local office for details on our special Gas Water Heater rental plan, available to the first 200 applicants. Enjoy ample hot water this summer.

Diane Jordan Wins May Award As Exchange Club Youth of Month

Diane Jordan, 83 New York ave., drum-major of the Freeport High School Marching Band was proclaimed the Youth of the Month for May at the weekly luncheon of the Exchange Club yesterday in the Elks club-house.

She was a guest at the luncheon and presented a certificate by Walter J. Nichols chairman of the Youth of the Month Committee. Miss Jordan was nominated for the honor by three local organizations.

Diane's citizenship rating is above average. This includes reliability, personality, character, leadership and co-operation. She has been an outstanding twirler and drum-major for two years, served as president of the freshman and sophomore classes and is an officer of the senior class. Despite her many extra curricular activities, Diane has maintained an average of above 80 for three and a half years in her school work. She is recognized for her moral character and religious principles.

Karl Weersma, a member of the club who recently visited Europe, addressed the club. He spoke of the Marshall plan and told of the feelings of Europeans toward the United States. President George B. Smith presided.

Doxsee Sees People

Franklin, Robert Morris, Alexander Hamilton, Abraham Lincoln and a host of others gave without stint, their health, wealth and genius, that on this continent might be created and maintained a nation unique in the history of man. A nation in which there would be a minimum of government and a maximum of individual liberty and freedom of action. Under this government, so created and maintained, the United States grew and its people prospered.

"To be sure everything was not perfect, as has been said, many of our people were and still are ill-housed, ill-fed and ill-clothed but by and large we here under our system have done better than any other country on earth. Our generation—yours and mine, has lost the American touch. We have forgotten or refused to admit that the above mentioned minimum of government and maximum of human freedom imposes upon the people a tremendous responsibility both for their own welfare and the welfare of the government that maintains for them these freedoms.

Have Lost the Peace Twice We have within the memory of most of us fought two world wars and attained tremendous military victories but in both instances we lost the peace. The men who made the supreme sacrifice, those whom we are here today to do honor, they have done their part, they can do no more. We the living however must carry on. We still have a job to do. My question to you is 'are we doing it in a manner that squares with the men who are no longer here?' My answer is no.

"Those men died to perpetuate the country that George Washington founded and Abraham Lincoln held together. Today this country of ours is so full of foreign ideologies that the names of our great men of the past and what they stood for are but a dim memory in the minds of some of us and never thought of or remembered by the rest of us. We are fast developing into a nation of people with one fixation 'security' at some one else's expense and government to take all responsibility from the shoulders of its citizens.

"My friends, it can't be done and unless we change our thinking, these men will have died in vain. To partake of American citizenship carried with it much responsibility. We the living, are as trustees charged with the affairs of this nation. We should conduct those affairs in a manner that will pass the country on to those who come after us at least as good as we received it; to do less is to break faith with our honored dead.

Pedigrees Mean Nothing To Pets At Long Island Humane Ass'n Show

Pedigrees meant nothing at the pet show sponsored by the Long Island Humane and Dog Protective Association, Inc., Sunday afternoon in the playground of the Grove st. school. The mongrel felt at liberty to snarl at the snobbiest of the aristocrats among the canines and the alley cat rubbed noses with the most magnificent angora. And the same was true among the other animals exhibited by their owners who came from as far away as Manhattan as well as all villages along the south shore and more distant points on Long Island.

There were more than 300 entries and judging which was started early in the afternoon, extended into the evening before it was completed on a very chilly day. During intermissions in the judging, Paul Jeffries put several dogs through obedience demonstrations to show how they can be trained.

The pet show was given for the benefit of the Association which recently opened its shelter on Hanse ave. There was a large attendance despite the chilliness of the atmosphere.

The prize for the best mixed breed dog of the show was awarded to the pet of Michael Marmon, a local exhibitor.

Other Freeport ribbon winners were:

Parrots—Mrs. Edward S. Baker, first.
Dogs—Biggest feet, Laverda Clem, third; shortest legs, John McLaughlin, second; longest ears, Judy Armstrong, first; Curliest tail, Douglas Wade, first; most spots, James Keeler, second; and curliest tailed puppy, Joseph McGee, first.

A special award for the oldest dog of the show, was won by a dog 15 years, 7 months old, owned by Mrs. Lucretia Luhrs.

Miss Evelyn V. Stryker headed the dog show committee.

Bill Ashley's CORNER

Ted Combs has done another fine job in resurfacing the Stadium playing field and now has a stand of new grass started. His efforts to keep the place in shape are untrifling in the face of heavy usage.

Nassau football coaches are planning a clinic June 10th at Garden City. This is part of the plan of the Nassau County Football Association to help raise the caliber of Nassau football. The association is open to any interested in coaching whether it be high school, semi-pro or college. Principal speakers will be Benny Friedman, head coach of Brandeis University and ex-Michigan and pro-great, John Bateman, Lou Little's line coach at Columbia, and Art Mason, backfield coach at Rutgers.

It may seem strange in this Spring season to think about football, but it's in the out of season months that the organization and plans for the fall are set up. In college, football is a twelve-month proposition and the stories of Leahy getting the Notre Dame coaches together bright and early every morning at 7:30 aren't just make-up.

High schools naturally don't and can't operate under this scheme of things, but have nevertheless been affected by this specialization and intensification of the game.

Jonas Beach will be the site of the All-Star Lacrosse game on Saturday. Two teams selected by a committee of coaches and officials and made up of outstanding men from all the teams in the Metropolitan area will play an inter-squad game. Last year Freeport had five men competing and will no doubt place Simone, Simandi, Chimeri, Krummel, Masone and possibly others on either the first or second All-Star squads.

TALKING ABOUT LACROSSE, last Saturday, saw Freeport play its first game in the Stadium. The weather was fine, the score was fine and all that could be desired was for a greater crowd to have been present to witness an outstanding exhibition of stick handling and technique, which was particularly good in view of the short time these boys have been playing the game. This is a fine group of athletes and I'm afraid they are going to be hard to replace. Since most of them also play football, our gridiron results may also suffer from their loss this year.

The highlight of the game which gave the spectators quite a kick, was the score by Boyle, a little fellow who in his first year has developed into a fine stick handler.

It looks as though the early season predictions of Freeport to win the South Shore and perhaps the County baseball championship are a bit nearer to being achieved as wins over Manhasset and Lawrence strengthened our hold on first place. Baseball continues to be the unpredictable game with each week producing ups and downs for even the League leaders. In other sports, the number one team is rarely knocked off by the cellar team, but in the diamond game it is not a rarity. The Yankees' 15 to 0 loss to Chicago a few weeks ago points this up.

F. H. S. Lacrosse Team To Tackle Sewanhaka After Beating Manhasset

The Freeport High School lacrosse team will bring its season to a close in a game against the crack Sewanhaka High School squad at the Municipal Stadium Tuesday at 2 P. M.

While the Floral Park contingent is regarded as in a class by itself so far as this sport is concerned, the Red Devils after defeating the Massapequa Indians, 8 to 1, Saturday, 1949, to concede defeat and expect to give the Sewanhaka team some stiff opposition.

Playing the best game of their career the Freeporters, who lost to the Indians a couple of weeks ago by a count of 8 to 4, put the victory in ice by a surge during the first quarter that took the invaders by surprise. In this period they counted five times when Jerry Simandi made two goals, and John Boyle, midget of the squad, Joseph Masone and Walter Nestvogel playing with a wrist in a plaster cast, one each.

Freeport's team scored during the second quarter. However, shortly after the start of the second half Massapequa escaped a shut out by scoring once, but Freeport soon regained its five-point margin on a counter by Masone, and then Nestvogel added another to make the score 7 to 1, as the period ended.

First Midget Races Here Tomorrow Night

Midget auto racing will bow in at the Municipal Stadium tomorrow night with eight Offenhausers included in the field. Top drivers of the American Racing Drivers' Association will compete for a minimum purse of $1,000 and extra Ford prize money.

With the advent of the "doodle-bugs," Promoter Jake Kedenburg will continue staging stock car races on Tuesday and Saturday nights, with leading drivers of the Eastern Seaboard.

Dick Eagen, last season's top point star, is currently leading the drivers in the point standings. Racing Director Gus Hager revealed this week Eagen, who has appeared on three of the four shows, each time in a different car, has amassed 38 points, six more than runner-up Johnny Rocco. Al DeAngelo is in third place with 31 points and Eddie Brunhoezel is fourth with 26. Saturday night's stock car races drew a crowd of 7,700 to the Stadium.

High School Band Gives Concert at Jones Beach

The Freeport High School Band had the usual rainy weather for its annual concert in the Music Shell at Jones Beach Sunday afternoon, but carried on the program.

Although it did pour during the recital, the weather was chilly and both the players and those in the audience shivered. J. Maynard Weinstein conducted the band, while Naomi Lewis, the student leader. She conducted the musicians in the playing of "Bells of St. Mary's," by Emmett Adams.

Opening the program with "The Star Spangled Banner," the band played selections from the operetta "Sari," by Kalamian, "American Patrol" by Paul Yoder and "Estrellita" by Lake-Wetlaufer.

A unique selection "Three Blind Mice" (at a night club floor show) by Carl Frankfurter was enjoyed. Later the band gave "St. Louis Blues March" by Handy, "Star Dust" by Hoagy Carmichael, and "Vespa" Procession to the Cathedral from "Lohengrin," by Wagner.

Melvin Lawson played as a trombone solo, "Atlantic Zephyr" by Gardner Simons, Richard E. Hanna, baritone horn, gave the "Sweetest Story Ever Told" by R. M. Stults and "Drum Major's Special" by James B. Hazzard featured Kane Jordan, Gloria Chalko, Karen Francenthal, Mary Vogt, Dorothy Devonshire and Cornelia Pennema, senior twirlers, gave a demonstration.

They scored once more for good measure, in the final period, Boyle making the count.

The passing of the Red Devils was the best they have done and their stickwork was equally good. They excelled their opponents at every angle of the game to receive the plaudits of their coach, Bill Ashley. The victory made the record for the season, five wins and three losses.

Forest Jewelers Girls' '9' Defeats Murry Hill By 10 to 0; Look Good

The Forest Jewelers Girls Baseball team looked good, despite lack of training, in its initial game on a cold night in the Municipal Stadium. Taking on the Murry Hill Girls of Cedarhurst, who finished second in the American Girls Baseball Conference in 1949, they won by a count of 10 to 2, though making making only four hits. They sparked afield while the members of the opposition were throwing the ball all around the lot.

The squad under the direction of Miss Mel Pearsall, comprises thirteen girls, to which three more will be added when the colleges they are attending close.
